Mr. Milford,

Oxford University Press,

London, England.

Dear Mr. Milford:

Will you kindly have fifty more copies of our University Press Book on India paper bound in leather sent to us as soon as possible? We have sold the fifty that you sent us and there are a number of inquiries. We should like to have the books here as soon as possible.

Yours sincerely,

President.

Dear Mr. President,

I have put in hand another 50
India paper copies of the University
Hymn Book to be bound in leather, and I hope to ship them by the middle of the month. I am glad the India paper books are liked.

Yours faithfully,

H. S. M. L. fow

Dear Mr. Milford:

I am sending you a bank order for $34.07 which I think covers the amount of your bill for the binding of the University Hymn Book.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.
